LOCALS

Misses Cora and Ollie Bradford of Grays were in this city Tuesday.

Miss Lillie Albright left Tuesday for Lexington on a few weeks visit.

Miss Fresser, of Latonia, is the charming guest of Miss Mae Harrop this week.

Elmer Beets, who has been working at Straight Creek, spent Sunday in this city.

Mrs. E. E. Bell, of Stoy, Ill., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Harris in this city.

The coldest weather for several days past has been experienced the early part of this week.

Barton Moore, who is now located at Jonesville, Va. spent Sunday with homefolks in this city.

Misses Latha and Dona Cannon were in Pineville the latter part of last week attending the carnival.

Rice Walton, a former student of Union College, is here attending commencement exercises this week.

Mrs. Edna A. Kellems, of Red House, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cole, is visiting relatives here this week.

Misses Cora and Lucile Boston of Flat Lick are attending the commencement exercises in this city this week.

Owing to the fact that this was commencement week there was only one show at the moving picture theater this week.

Judge F. D. Sampson went to Williamsburg Sunday, to preside at the regular May term of the Whitley Circuit Court.

K. F. Davis and Dave McNeil are in London this week serving on a jury during the present term of Federal Court now being held in that city.

Assistant District Attorney Sawyer A. Smith was here Saturday and returned Sunday to London where Federal Court opened on Monday last.

Mrs. Mag Herndon and son Dan left last Sunday night for Kansas City, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks. Her son Ben is now located there.

Miss S. Ella Miller formerly in charge of the musical department at B. B. I. is attending the commencement at that institution this week. She is the guest of Mrs. E. T. England.

Mrs. D. H. Talbott who has been visiting her parents Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Albright in this city for the past few weeks, returned home to Indianapolis, via North Middleton, last Tuesday.

The largest crowd ever attending an entertainment at B. B. I. was present at the Music recital given by the students of Miss King last Tuesday evening. Every seat was taken and all the standing room occupied and a large number were turned back at the door for lack of space.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given last Saturday evening at the U. C. Chapel by the primary department under the instruction of Miss Sandusky and despite the fact that the weather was very inclement the large room was crowded, and a large number were only able to obtain standing room.

The time of the arrival of the south-bound "short dog" has been changed so that it is now due at Barbourville at 6:43 o'clock a. m. instead of 9:45 as heretofore, and is due in Middlesboro at 8 a. m. instead of 11 o'clock. This makes it much more convenient for those working at the different mine operations south of here, of whom there are many in this city, who may now spend Sunday at home without being inconvenienced by having to get up so early in the morning in order to return to their work. Connections can now also be made with the Cumberland train at Artemus and with the train going to Harlan and other points on the W & B. M. Railroad from Pineville.

The Great Council of Kentucky Red Men is in session this week at Bowling Green and the local tribe is well represented there by Mayor James Wilson, R. W. Cole, Dr. A. L. Parker, C. G. Black, Ernest Cannon, and Chas. Davis. All of the above mentioned left here Sunday morning except Mr. Davis, who did not leave until Sunday night, and was accompanied by Mrs. Davis.

As has been customary with Mr. Black since assuming the presidency of Union College, Judge and Mrs. Jas. D. Black entertained at their home last Tuesday evening in honor of the members of the senior class. Besides those members of the graduates class, the members of the faculty and a number of other guests were present. Miss Gertrude Black and Mrs. H. H. Owens assisted in entertaining and the evening was pleasantly spent by all present. Refreshments of brick cream and strawberries were served.

Last week a vaudeville show was billed for three nights' performance at the moving picture theater but after the first show on Thursday night the management pinned the "23" sign on them and told them to move on. This company had been playing the first of the week at London and had been recommended as high class and clean performers but they failed to come up to the standard required by the local management and consequently the remainder of their engagement was cancelled, even though at a financial loss to the young men in charge of the moving picture show.

The first and only game of base ball of the season on the home grounds was played last Saturday by U. C. and S. B. M. S. of London in which the latter were victorious to the tune of 13 to 9. The local boys were handicapped on account of lack of practice and were in no condition to play and a heavy rain which fell that morning put the ground in a soggy condition making it unfit for play but the game(?) was played anyhow with the result above mentioned. Neither team played anything like the class of ball usually seen in this city and aside from the star catch by Simms in right field the game was featureless.

High School Notes

The patrons of the Barbourville High School have a special invitation to visit the school on Wednesday, May 22nd at 3:30 p. m. and inspect the work being done by the pupils.

An entertainment by the students of the school under the direction of Misses Matthews, Lane and Ballard will be given at the U. C. Chapel on the evening of May 23rd.

On Friday evening, May 24th, at the U. C. Chapel the commencement exercise of the High School will be held.

WRONG ANSWER.

Junior officers of the army and navy will do well to take to heart the lesson in the story told in Colonel Caldwell's reminiscences in Blackwood's Magazine. An irascible old admiral had apologized to a junior officer for his hastiness. The subaltern, wishing to appear magnanimous, replied:
"Oh, that's all right, sir; I really did not mind what you said a bit."
"D—n you, sir," thundered the admiral. "What do you mean by that? You don't mind what I say a bit, don't you?" whereupon the young officer got a worse going-over than ever.—Army and Navy Jour-

ELECTROCUTED

Mr. A. T. Smith, One of Middlesboro's Prominent Business Men Meets Death in Strange Manner

Was Formerly a Citizen of Knox County

On last Saturday night at about 10:20 o'clock, Mr. A. T. Smith, one of Middlesboro's most prominent business men met death by being electrocuted. He had just left his drug store and was met by one of his customers who wanted something in the store, and he reentered the store and went behind the prescription case to get the goods called for. They had been using a sixteen candle power electric light which was attached to a long cord so that they could carry it to different parts of the room, and he took this in his hand and went to get the article called for. After walking four or five steps and procuring the article he was seized with a tremendous electrical shock and could not release his hold on the lamp.

There were only two other people in the store, one of whom attempted to release him and was knocked senseless. Finding that it was impossible to release him while the current was on they went to the telephone and had the electric plant shut down, but this was four minutes after he came in contact with the light, and he was dead.

The first report to reach here was to the effect that he had been killed by lightning, but others say that his death was brought about by a defect in the wiring of the building causing a short circuit.

His funeral was held last Tuesday morning at his residence on Edgewood Avenue and was conducted by Reverends Reed, of the Baptist Church of London, and Roddy of the Baptist Church of Middlesboro. Every business house in the city was closed out of respect for him and one of the largest processions ever seen in Southeastern Kentucky accompanied his remains to their last resting place.

Mr. Smith was a prominent Mason, Elk and Red man and was for 12 years a member of the city Council, and although he was never a candidate for the place, was always elected. Formerly he was a railway mail clerk on the L. & N. from Louisville to Middlesboro.

He was born in Knox County on October 4th, 1867, was married to Miss Martha Yeager of Flat Lick in 1886, and leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss, besides a father, mother, six sisters and one brother.

Mr. Smith was heavily insured and leaves quite a fortune to his family. The drug business will be conducted in the same firm name by his oldest son Eugene Smith.
